THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 July 2018 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union, amending Regulations (EU) No 1296/2013, (EU) No 1301/2013, (EU) No 1303/2013, (EU) No 1304/2013, (EU) No 1309/2013, (EU) No 1316/2013, (EU) No 223/2014, (EU) No 283/2014, and Decision No 541/2014/EU and repealing Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 966/2012<sup>1</sup>, and in particular Articles 58(2), point (d), and 110 thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) In order to ensure the implementation of information outreach and awareness activities on the provision of humanitarian aid and the promotion of coordination between the Union and Member States on humanitarian aid actions, it is necessary to adopt an annual financing decision, which constitutes the annual work programme for 2024. Article 110 of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 establishes detailed rules on financing decisions.
- (2) The envisaged assistance should comply with the conditions and procedures set out by the restrictive measures<sup>2</sup> adopted pursuant to Article 215 TFEU.
- (3) As provided for in Article 58(2), point (d), the Commission by virtue of tasks resulting from its prerogatives at institutional level pursuant to the TFEU may implement the appropriations without a basic act provided the actions which they are intended to finance fall within the competences of the Union.
- (4) The Commission has underlined<sup>3</sup> the importance of informing the public in Member States and third countries of activities carried out in the area of humanitarian aid in order to increase the visibility and understanding of the Union's external action, including the Union's cooperation with international organisations.
- (5) The Directorate-General for European Civil Protection and Humanitarian Aid Operations' (ECHO) field offices play a crucial role in communicating how the Union's policies and results towards third countries and international organisations are implemented, while ensuring the respect of the values referred to in Article 2 TEU.
